FESS AND DONAHEY WINNERS

REPUBLICANS RETURNED TO LOCAL OFFICES
IN TUESDAY'S VOTING

Democrats Fail to Defeat Any Opponents—County Votes
Against Beer Amendment, and Turns Down Other Proposals; Mrs. Faulkner Wins.

Greene County as usual polled an other large Republican majority for all state candidates Tuesday giving big pluralities to all Republican candidates for state offices while Republican candidates for county offices were swept into office with the general tide in spite of several contests that furnished interest.

Large Republican majorities were returned in the county for Carmi A. Thompson candidate for Governor and for Dr. S. D. Fess of Yellow Springs, Greene County's own candidate for U. S. Senator.

Other state offices followed in the general tide in the county, although some of them were cut below the head of the ticket, largely due, it is believed to the bitter wet and dry fight that was on. This was particularly prominent in the Greene County vote for Lieutenant Governor, in which Chaffield was cut to 5,573, while Bloom, the Democratic candidate, ran ahead of the state Democratic ticket, with 4,197 votes.

Dr. Fess polled the largest vote in the county for state offices, complimentary from his home county, the balloting being 6,556 in his favor to 3,744 for Pomerene.

Among promised brushes between Republican and Democratic candidates for local offices, the race between Frank A. Jackson, Republican, and H. A. Higgins, Democrat, for the County Treasurer's position was the most closely contested, with the inter-party race for the prosecuting attorney's office between J. K. Williamson, incumbent and George H. Smith, Democrat, a close second.

Both Democratic candidates showed gains that ran well ahead of their party. Higgins carried 20 precincts in the county, while a number of others were almost evenly divided, but his gains were cut down seriously in the colored precincts in Xenia City and Wilberforce, where straight Republican tickets were polled.

Jackson's total was 5,291 and Higgins 4,746, a majority of 545, with absent voters' ballots not counted. Smith also carried 20 precincts in the county, and led the Democratic county ticket with a total of 4,768 votes, 551 behind his Republican opponent, who polled 5,339. The anticipated race between M. A. Broadstone, Republican, incumbent, and Mrs. DeEtta Wilson, Democrat, for the office of Representative, was not as tight as predicted, the former winning by a comfortable margin.

His vote was 5,796 while Mrs. Wilson polled 4,399 and ran third on the Democratic ticket in the county.

THOMPSON HAS FIGHTING CHANCE
DECLARES MILLER

Columbus, Nov. 8.—"We have a fighting chance to win the governorship," declared Chairman William Miller, Republican state campaign committee at noon today.

"The rest of the Republican state ticket has won, including Congressman Fess for U. S. Senator," continues Chairman Miller.

Related returns received at Republican state headquarters here this forenoon, Chairman Miller declared showed Carmi A. Thompson, was gaining 13 votes to the precinct.

"If Thompson continues to gain at the rate of at least 10 votes to the precinct he will be elected," asserted Chairman Miller.

He stated that returns from 5,787 precincts this morning gave Donahy a lead of 22,357 but that figures from 313 additional precincts, received later this forenoon, cut Donahy's majority to 18,311.

"Vic Donahy has been elected governor of Ohio beyond any question of doubt and final complete returns will show the re-election of U. S. Senator Atlee Pomerene," W. W. Durbin, chairman of the Democratic state committee declared here this afternoon. Durbin gave out no figures.

Cincinnati, Nov. 8.—Deaf to the pleas of his wife and two little children, John Carlin, 28, a grocer's clerk, making $16 a week, stood in the doorway of his home last night and drained a glass of poison. He sank to the floor in convulsions and died on the way to the hospital in a police ambulance. Mrs. Carlin said that her husband had attempted to end his life on several occasions and that his health had been impaired since he swallowed mercury tablets in one of these attempts at Toledo a year ago. She said he was dependent because of his small salary.

MILLER LOSES TO SMITH IN EAST

Washington, Nov. 8.—The first overturn in the United States senate came when the New York state Republican committee conceded the defeat of Senator Calder and the election of Dr. Royal S. Copeland, Democrat, New York city's health commissioner.

Senator Calder is a member of three important senate committees, finance, banking and commerce.

The first five women candidates for the house were beaten. Four were in Pennsylvania, and one was in North Carolina.

GEIGER DEFEATED

Springfield, Ohio, November 8.—One of the biggest surprises was the election of Frank M. Krapp as common pleas judge over Judge F. W. Geighe, incumbent. Returns showed that Krapp won by 230 votes, the totals being Krapp, 10,644 and Geighe, 10,414.

This is the tale of a dog's tail. When Mrs. Olivia M. Burnie, of Louisville, Ky., purchased this dog from Louis Strolitsky, of Chicago, for $300, he told her it was tailless. She has sued for the return of her money, alleging the dog is tailless because its tail was amputated. Dr. Burt Franklin, veterinarian, supported her contention.

REPUBLICANS WILL CONTINUE IN CONTROL OF BOTH U. S. HOUSES

Majorities, However, are Greatly Reduced as Swing of Pendulum Marks Up Notable Series of Democratic Gains.

New York, Nov. 8.—Late returns today from closely contested territory greatly magnified the magnitude of Democratic gains made in Tuesday's election.

On the basis of returns received up to 10:45 o'clock today, it is now fairly certain that the Republican majority in the next senate will be reduced to 12 and possibly to 10, as compared with the present majority of 24.

Republican senatorial defeats suffered in New York, New Jersey, Michigan, Maryland, West Virginia, Delaware, Indiana and probably in North Dakota, encompassed this result.

The Democrats lost only two of their sitting senators—Hitchcock in Nebraska and Pomerene in Ohio.

In the house of representatives the present overwhelming Republican majority of 169 has been cut almost to the vanishing point, and it may be conceivably controlled by either party by a few votes. The belief prevailed however that in the final tabulations the Republicans will have maintained control by a small margin. Returns from congressional districts in the west have been slow coming in.

The magnitude of the Democratic gains, however, may be judged from returns in the populous centers of the country which went overwhelmingly Republican two years ago.

HITCHCOCK LOSES
SEAT RETURNS SAY

Chicago, Nov. 8.—On the face of late senatorial returns from middle western states, the Republicans had apparently lost two senators, Indiana and North Dakota, but had gained two seats, Ohio and Nebraska. There were no other switches in the party senatorial lineups threatened in these states.

In Indiana, where the battle was particularly hot, Samuel Ralston, Democrat and former governor, had a comfortable lead over Albert J. Beveridge, Republican and follower of Theodore Roosevelt in 1912. In North Dakota Lynn J. Frazier, recalled non-partisan league governor, running for the senate as a Republican, was behind J. F. T. O'Connor, Democrat, with some non-partisan league precincts to be heard from.

Among the upsets was the defeat of Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, Nebraska, Democratic floor leader during the administration of former President Wilson and candidate for re-election, by R. B. Howell, Republican, Charles M. Bryan, brother of William Jennings Bryan and Democratic candidate for the Nebraska governorship, seemed to have defeated his Republican opponent, Charles H. Randall.

TO GIVE SERIES OF BIBLE TALKS

The Rev. W. E. McClure, of Columbus, Ohio, former graduate of the Xenia Theological Seminary, and who is well known in this vicinity, will give a series of Bible talks at the Friends Church, at Spring Valley, for five successive nights, beginning Monday evening, November 13, at 7:30 o'clock each evening. The public is invited to attend the services, which will include a consecutive Bible study by the Rev. Mr. McClure.

APPEAL FOR AID MEETS WITH PROMPT ACTION

The plea made by Mrs. Carrie I. Robertson, executive secretary Social Service League, for a coat for a two-months old child of a widow, was seen by a local man, who went to a local store, Wednesday and purchased a pretty white corduroy coat for the little child, and presented it to the League. The organization has been successful in each case where pleas have been made through the newspapers for needy families generous-hearted citizens responding.

BONUS IS FAVORED

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Down state precincts reporting on the soldiers' bonus referendum gave nearly three to one in favor of the $55,000,000 bond issue. The same precincts gave two to one for the beer and light wines referendum.

SMITH ROLLS UP
HUGE PLURALITY
OVER N. MILLER

Elected Governor of New York by Largest Vote Ever Received.

CALDER IS DEFEATED

Copeland, Health Commissioner Wins by Substantial Majority.

New York, Nov. 8.—Former Governor Alfred E. Smith, rolling up the greatest plurality New York city ever has given any candidate in any election, was swept back into the gubernatorial chair from which he had been ejected in 1920 by Governor Nathan L. Miller.

Republicans not only admitted the defeat of Mr. Miller, but conceded that William M. Calder had lost his seat in the United States senate to Royal S. Copeland, health commissioner of New York city, formerly mayor of Ann Arbor, Mich., and until this election an untested factor in New York politics.

With the success of their ticket leaders, Democrats were claiming gains in congress and the legislature, but the Republicans maintained stoutly that their majorities in the senate and assembly had been little impaired.

The victory of Smith was anticipated by many political observers, but even his sturdiest supporters had not predicted that in New York city he would beat the record plurality of 417,000 established by Mayor John F. Hyland in 1920.

CALDER DEFEATED;
LAFOLLETTE WINNER

New York, Nov. 8.—Late returns indicate that the trend of the returns in the elections for the United States senate and the house of representatives was in favor of the Democrats.

With returns for more than half of the house complete, the Republicans had not unseated a Democratic representative and Democratic candidates had defeated more than 25 Republicans. To gain control of the house, however, the Democrats must gain nearly 50 seats.

The senate returns showed definitely one Democratic gain by the defeat of Senator Calder in New York. That, however, was offset by a Republican gain of one in Nebraska, where R. B. Howell had defeated Senator Hitchcock.

In Maryland, Senator Francis P. Pickens, was ahead of William Cabell Bruce, Democrat. In Massachusetts, Senator Lodge was leading on incomplete returns. In New Jersey, where prohibition was largely an issue, Governor Edwards, Democrat, running on a wet platform, was slightly ahead of Senator Frelinghuysen, Republican, running with prohibition endorsement.

SUCCESSOR TO DAY

Washington, Nov. 8.—A successor to Associate Justice Day of the supreme court, whose resignation becomes effective on Nov. 14, will be nominated by President Harding as soon as congress reassembles, it was said at the white house. Officials added, however, that it had not yet been determined whether the nominee will be a Democrat or a Republican, or from the north or the south.

HULL IS ELECTED

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 8.—Cordell Hull, chairman of the Democratic national committee, was elected to the house from the Fourth district over Representative Clouse, the Republican incumbent. Mr. Hull represented the same district when defeated two years ago.

THOMPSON OUT OF RACE
WITH POMERENE BACK;
BEER PROPOSAL DEFEATED

Democratic Candidate for Governor Rolls up Big Majority Over Carmi A. Thompson—Wet Amendment Probably Defeated.

Cleveland, Nov. 8.—With Congressman Simeon D. Fess leading Senator Atlee Pomerene, veteran Democrat by less than 7,000 votes, and with approximately 600,000 votes remaining to be tabulated in the most interesting of the year's senatorial elections, Ohio Democrats today were not prepared to concede the defeat of the Canton statesman, although admitting that things "looked bad." On behalf of Congressman Fess a claim was put forth that he would win by 20,000 with the missing 2,500 precincts accounted for.

Vic Donahy, "reform" state auditor for eight years, had apparently defeated Colonel Carmi A. Thompson, Republican, close friend of President Harding by a plurality of 40,000 to 50,000, although Republican state chairman Miller announced that "we are sitting tight, conceding nothing, and will let the figures speak for themselves." Other candidates upon the state ticket as well as two Republican candidates for supreme court judge were elected, despite the fact that a strong drive was made by women's organizations to put across Miss Florence E. Allen now common pleas judge in Cuyahoga County, as a member of the court of last resort. She was apparently running third, on incomplete figures.

The dyes of Ohio have downed the proposed beer amendment by a majority that may reach 40,000 and may even go higher. Heavy wet leads in Cleveland, Toledo and Cincinnati were overcome by the avalanche of dry votes in rural counties.

The wets had a majority of 8,900 when returns from the big centers were tabulated. The vote, including Hamilton, Cuyahoga and Lucas counties complete with the missing precincts mostly in dry territory from 5,600 precincts throughout the state was wet 510,262; dry 502,242.

Apparently the Republicans have elected their congressional candidates in the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, seventh, tenth, twelfth, thirteenth, fifteenth, eighteenth, nineteenth and twenty-second districts. Democrats were returned winners in the ninth, eleventh, fourteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, twentieth and twenty-first with the sixth and eighth in doubt.

Tabulations of returns from 6,452 precincts in Ohio, including Cuyahoga county, complete gave: Thompson (R) 572,295; Pomerene (D) 604,345. For Senator Fess (R) 554,100; Pomerene (D) 547,233.

Cleveland, Nov. 8.—Senator Atlee Pomerene was whittling the lead of his Republican opponent, as returns continued to pour in this afternoon. At noon the vote from 6,425 precincts for senator gave Fess 552,875 and Pomerene 545,284. Thompson carried Cuyahoga County, by a margin of 2,647 on complete returns while Pomerene led Fess in the county by 2,505.

A. V. Donahy, Democrat has been elected governor of Ohio by a plurality that may reach 50,000. Republicans have elected fourteen and Democrats six of Ohio's twenty-two congressmen with two districts in doubt. These were the results as 5,950 of the state's 8,167 were tabulated by International News Service today.

The vote at that time was for Donahy 581,264; Thompson, 554,281. In 5,712 precincts Fess, Republican was leading Pomerene, Democrat. The vote was Fess 534,752; Pomerene 520,825.

NO SMALL TRIBUTE
DECLARES FESS TO DEFEAT POMERENE

Basing his statement on partial returns from a majority of precincts from over the state, Dr. S. D. Fess, Republican candidate for U. S. Senator, at his home in Yellow Springs, Wednesday afternoon, told a representative of The Gazette and The Republican, that at two o'clock he was leading his Democratic opponent, Atlee Pomerene, by 15,098 votes.

Dr. Fess' interview followed a telephone conversation with a Cleveland newspaper in which he said he had been informed that his plurality in the state would be 30,000.

"I am grateful to the people of Ohio for the vote of confidence as expressed in this endorsement of the national administration," said Dr. Fess Wednesday afternoon. "I placed my campaign upon the achievements of the Harding administration. It is no small tribute to defeat the confessedly ablest Democrat in the nation."

Showing for beer, 414,265; against 445,286.

THOMPSON OUT OF RACE

In the three Cleveland congressional districts Congressmen Norton and Gahn had been defeated by former Congressmen Mooney and Croser, Democrats, while the veteran Theodore Burton, was returned in the 22nd district by an overwhelming vote.

Votes on other state officers were slow in reporting, the following being the totals at 10 o'clock: Lieut. Governor—3,700 precincts, Chaffield, (R) 324,250; Bloom, (D) 325,051.

SENIOR WINS AGAIN

New York, Nov. 8.—Speaker Gillett, Republican, was re-elected from the Second Massachusetts district for his sixteenth term, making him the patriarch of the new house of representatives, an honor now held by former Speaker Cannon, who was not a candidate for election to the new congress.

Washington, Nov. 8.—President Harding will make no post-election statement, it was said at the white house, because he believed the opinions registered in the ballot boxes, regardless of their nature, need no interpretation from the president.

COLEMAN DUPONT
LOSES HIS FIGHT

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 8.—T. Coleman Dupont, Delaware's multimillionaire Republican senator has been defeated for re-election by Thomas F. Bayard, Democrat, according to complete returns available this afternoon. Bayard's majority is 833. The vote is: Bayard 37,456; Dupont, 36,892.

FESS AND DONAHEY WINNERS

REPUBLICANS RETURNED TO LOCAL OFFICES IN TUESDAY'S VOTING

Democrats Fail to Defeat Any Opponents—County Votes Against Beer Amendment, and Turns Down Other Proposals; Mrs. Faulkner Wins.

Greene County as usual polled an other large Republican majority for all state candidates Tuesday giving big pluralities to all Republican candidates for state offices while Republican candidates for county offices were swept into office with the general tide in spite of several contests that furnished interest.

Large Republican majorities were returned in the county for Carmi A. Thompson candidate for Governor and for Dr. S. D. Fess of Yellow Springs, Greene County's own candidate for U. S. Senator.

Other state offices followed in the general tide in the county, although some of them were cut below the head of the ticket, largely due, it is believed to the bitter wet and dry fight that was on. This was particularly prominent in the Greene County vote for Lieutenant Governor, in which Chaffield was cut to 5,578, while Bloom, the Democratic candidate, ran ahead of the state Democratic ticket, with 4,197 votes. Dr. Fess polled the largest vote in the county for state offices, complimentary from his home county, the balloting being 6,556 in his favor to 3,744 for Pomerene.

Among promised brushes between Republican and Democratic candidates for local offices, the race between Frank A. Jackson, Republican, and H. A. Higgins, Democrat, for the County Treasurer's position was the most closely contested, with the inter-party race for the prosecuting attorney's office between J. K. Williams, incumbent and George H. Smith, Democrat, a close second. Both Democratic candidates showed gains that ran well ahead of their party. Higgins carried 20 precincts in the county, while a number of others were almost evenly divided, but his gains were cut down seriously in the colored precincts in Xenia City and Wilberforce, where straight Republican tickets were polled. Jackson's total was 5,291 and Higgins 4,746, a majority of 545, with absent voters' ballots not counted. Smith also carried 20 precincts in the county, and led the Democratic county ticket with a total of 4,758 votes, 551 behind his Republican opponent, who polled 5,339. The anticipated race between M. A. Broadstone, Republican incumbent and Mrs. DeEtta Wilson, Democrat, for the office of Representative, was not as tight as predicted, the former winning by a comfortable margin. His vote was 5,796 while Mrs. Wilson polled 4,399 and ran third on the Democratic ticket in the county.

While it was voting largely Republican, especially for state offices, Greene County also found time to cast its ballots against the proposed beer and light wine amendment, and returned a tremendous majority against the measure. The other amendments, it is believed, suffered because many people knew little of their purpose, they also were defeated by comfortable margins.

Judge H. L. Farneding, Democratic candidate for Court of Appeals carried the county, and Judge Ben Hough and Robert Day, the Republican nominees, received the majority of votes from this county for Supreme Court seats.

The interesting brush between Mrs. Carle R. Faulkner, incumbent and Elbert L. Babb, former county treasurer, for the office of County Treasurer for the short time, resulted in a win for the former by a small majority.

The race tightened up as the last precincts reported and the lead held by Mrs. Faulkner late Tuesday night, was cut down considerably in practically every precinct of the last few reporting. Her vote was 3,169 as against 2,924 polled by Babb for a majority of 245.

The fact that there were considerable "scratched" ballots, delayed the

SMITH ROLLS UP HUGE PLURALITY OVER N. MILLER

Elected Governor of New York by Largest Vote Ever Received.

CALDER IS DEFEATED

Copeland, Health Commissioner Wins by Substantial Majority.

New York, Nov. 8.—Former Governor Alfred E. Smith, rolling up the greatest plurality New York city ever has given any candidate in any election, was swept back into the gubernatorial chair from which he had been elected in 1920 by Governor Nathan L. Miller.

Republicans not only admitted the defeat of Mr. Miller, but conceded that William M. Calder had lost his seat in the United States senate to Royal S. Copeland, health commissioner of New York city, formerly mayor of Ann Arbor, Mich., and until this election an untested factor in New York politics.

THOMPSON OUT OF RACE WITH POMERENE BACK; BEER PROPOSAL DEFEATED

Democratic Candidate for Governor Rolls up Big Majority Over Carmi A. Thompson—Wet Amendment Probably Defeated.

Cleveland, Nov. 8.—With Congressman Simeon D. Fess leading Senator Atlee Pomerene, veteran Democrat by less than 7,000 votes, and with approximately 600,000 votes remaining to be tabulated in the most interesting of the year's senatorial elections, Ohio Democrats today were not prepared to concede the defeat of the Canton statesman, although admitting that things "looked bad." On behalf of Congressman Fess a claim was put forth that he would win by 20,000 with the missing 2,500 precincts accounted for.

Vic Donahey, "reform" state auditor for eight years, had apparently defeated Colonel Carmi A. Other candidates upon the state ticket as well as two Republican candidates for supreme court judge were elected, despite the fact that a strong drive was made by women's organizations to put across Miss Florence E. Allen now common pleas judge in Cuyahoga County, as a member of the court of last resort. She was apparently running third, on incomplete figures.

The dregs of Ohio have downed the proposed beer amendment by a majority that may reach 40,000 and may even go higher. Heavy wet leads in Cleveland, Toledo and Cincinnati were overcome by the avalanche of dry votes in rural counties.

The wets had a majority of 8,000 when returns from the big centers were tabulated. The vote, including Hamilton, Cuyahoga and Lucas counties, complete with the missing precincts mostly in dry territory from 5,600 precincts throughout the state was 510,267; dry 502,232.

Apparently the Republicans have elected their congressional candidates in the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, seventh, tenth, twelfth, thirteenth, fifteenth, eighteenth, nineteenth and twenty-second districts. Democrats were returned winners in the ninth, eleventh, fourteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, twentieth and twenty-first with the sixth and eighth in doubt.

Tabulations of returns from 6,452 precincts in Ohio, including Cuyahoga county, complete gave: Thompson (R) 572,295; Donahey (D) 604,345. For Senator Fess (R) 554,100; Pomerene (D) 547,233.

THOMPSON HAS FIGHTING CHANCE DECLARES MILLER

Columbus, Nov. 8.—"We have a fighting chance to win the governorship," declared Chairman William Miller, Republican state campaign committee at noon today.

"The rest of the Republican state ticket has won, including Congressman Fess for U. S. Senator," continues Chairman Miller.

Belated returns received at Republican state headquarters here this forenoon, Chairman Miller declared showed Carmi A. Thompson, was gaining 13 votes to the precinct.

"If Thompson continues to gain at the rate of at least 10 votes to the precinct he will be elected," asserted Chairman Miller.

He stated that returns from 5,787 precincts this morning gave Donahey a lead of 22,357 but that figures from 313 additional precincts, received later this forenoon, cut Donahey's majority to 18,311.

"Vic Donahey has been elected governor of Ohio beyond any question of doubt and final complete returns will show the re-election of U. S. Senator Atlee Pomerene," W. W. Durbin, chairman of the Democratic state committee declared here this afternoon. Durbin gave out no figures.

REPUBLICANS WILL CONTINUE IN CONTROL OF BOTH U. S. HOUSES

Majorities, However, are Greatly Reduced as Swing of Pendulum Marks Up Notable Series of Democratic Gains.

New York, Nov. 8.—Late returns today from closely contested territory greatly magnified the magnitude of Democratic gains made in Tuesday's election.

On the basis of returns received up to 10:45 o'clock today, it is now fairly certain that the Republican majority in the next senate will be reduced to 12 and possibly to 10, as compared with the present majority of 24.

Republican senatorial defeats suffered in New York, New Jersey, Michigan, Maryland, West Virginia, Delaware, Indiana and probably in North Dakota, encompassed this result.

The Democrats lost only two of their sitting senators—Hitchcock in Nebraska and Pomerene in Ohio.

In the house of representatives the present overwhelming Republican majority of 169 has been cut almost to the vanishing point, and it may be conceivably controlled by either party by a few votes. The belief prevailed however that in the final tabulations the Republicans will have maintained control by a small margin. Returns from congressional districts in the west have been slow coming in.

The magnitude of the Democratic gains, however, may be judged from returns in the populous center of the country which went overwhelmingly Republican two years ago.

On the face of returns this forenoon, the Democrats have gained 15 seats in New York, making 24 Democrats from New York in the next house as against 9 in the present one; they have gained 7 seats in New Jersey; 8 in Pennsylvania; 12 in Missouri; 2 in Kansas; 3 in Tennessee; 4 in West Virginia; 8 in

DRINKS POISON IN PRESENCE OF WIFE

Cincinnati, Nov. 8.—Deaf to the pleas of his wife and two little children, John Carlin, 28, a grocer's clerk, making $16 a week, stood in the doorway of his home last night and drained a glass of poison. He sank to the floor in convulsions and died on the way to the hospital in a police ambulance. Mrs. Carlin said that her husband had attempted to end his life on several occasions and that his health had been impaired since he swallowed mercury tablets in one of these attempts at Toledo a year ago. She said he was despondent because of his small salary.

TO GIVE SERIES OF BIBLE TALKS

The Rev. W. E. McClure, of Columbus, Ohio, former graduate of the Xenia Theological Seminary, and who is well known in this vicinity, will give a series of Bible talks at the Friends Church, at Spring Valley, for five successive nights, beginning Monday evening, November 13, at 7:30 o'clock each evening. The public is invited to attend the services, which will include a consecutive Bible study by the Rev. Mr. McClure.

MILLER LOSES TO SMITH IN EAST

Washington, Nov. 8.—The first overturn in the United States senate came when the New York state Republican committee conceded the defeat of Senator Calder and the election of Dr. Royal S. Copeland, Democrat, New York city's health commissioner. Senator Calder is a member of three important senate committees, finance, banking and commerce.

The first five women candidates for the house were beaten. Four were in Pennsylvania, and one was in North Carolina.

In the south, Senators Trammell of Florida, George of Georgia, Stephens of Mississippi and Swanson of Virginia were elected. Senator George succeeds Mrs. W. H. Felton, appointed by Governor Hardwick to succeed the late Senator Thomas Watson.

Senator Hiram Johnson was an easy winner in California, as was Senator LaFollette in Wisconsin. Tennessee returned Senator McKellar.

HITCHCOCK LOSES SEAT RETURNS SAY

Chicago, Nov. 8.—On the face of late senatorial returns from middle western states, the Republicans had apparently lost two senators, Indiana and North Dakota, but had gained two seats, Ohio and Nebraska. There were no other switches in the party senatorial lineups threatened in these states.

In Indiana, where the battle was particularly hot, Samuel Ralston, Democrat and former governor, had a comfortable lead over Albert J. Beveridge, Republican and follower of Theodore Roosevelt in 1912. In North Dakota Lynn J. Frazier, re-called non-partisan league governor, running for the senate as a Republican, was behind J. F. T. O'Connor, Democrat, with some non-partisan league precincts to be heard from.

Among the upsets was the defeat of Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock, Nebraska, Democratic floor leader during the administration of former President Wilson and candidate for re-election, by R. B. Howell, Republican, Charles M. Bryan, brother of William Jennings Bryan and Democratic candidate for the Nebraska governorship, seemed to have defeated his Republican opponent, Charles H. Randall.

Among the senatorial contests in other middle western states, Senator

CALDER DEFEATED; LAFOLLETTE WINNER

New York, Nov. 8.—Late returns indicate that the trend of the returns in the elections for the United States senate and the house of representatives was in favor of the Democrats.

With returns for more than half of the house complete, the Republicans had not unseated a Democratic representative and Democratic candidates had defeated more than 25 Republicans. To gain control of the house, however, the Democrats must gain nearly 80 seats.

The senate returns showed definitely one Democratic gain by the defeat of Senator Calder in New York. That, however, was offset by a Republican gain of one in Nebraska, where R. B. Howell had defeated Senator Hitchcock.

In Maryland, Senator Francis, Republican, was ahead of William Cabell Bruce, Democrat. In Massachusetts, Senator Lodge was leading on incomplete returns. In New Jersey, where prohibition was largely an issue, Governor Edwards, Democrat, running on a wet platform, was slightly ahead of Senator Frelinghuysen, Republican, running with prohibition endorsement.

In Pennsylvania Senators Reed and Pepper appeared to have been elected and in Rhode Island Senator Gerry, the Democratic incumbent, was ahead. In Tennessee, too, the Democratic incumbent, Senator McKellar, was leading his opponent, and in Texas, where a Democratic nomination is equivalent to an election, Earle B. Mayfield was leading. In Utah former Governor Bamberger, Republican, was running ahead of Senator King, Democrat. Senator Smoot, who is a power in the Mormon church, campaigned for Bamberger.

In Vermont Representative Greene, Republican, had a large lead in his race for a seat in the senate.

NO SMALL TRIBUTE DECLARES FESS TO DEFEAT POMERENE

Based on his statement on partial returns from a majority of precincts from over the state, Dr. S. D. Fess, Republican candidate for U. S. Senator, at his home in Yellow Springs, Wednesday afternoon, told a representative of The Gazette and The Republican, that at two o'clock he was leading his Democratic opponent, Atlee Pomerene, by 15,098 votes.

Dr. Fess' interview followed a telephone conversation with a Cleveland newspaper in which he said he had been informed that his plurality in the state would be 20,000.

"I am grateful to the people of Ohio for the vote of confidence as expressed in this endorsement of the national administration," said Dr. Fess Wednesday afternoon. "I placed my campaign upon the achievements of the Harding administration. It is no small tribute to defeat the confessedly ablest Democrat in the nation."

T. COLEMAN DUPONT LOSES HIS FIGHT

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 8.—T. Coleman Dupont, Delaware's multimillionaire Republican senator has been defeated for re-election by Thomas F. Bayard, Democrat, according to complete returns available this afternoon. Bayard's majority is 563. The vote is: Bayard 37,455; Dupont, 36,892.

Delaware's lone congressman also goes in the Democratic column. Boyce, Democrat, defeated Layton, Republican, by a majority of 6,829. Layton voted against the Dyer anti-lynching bill which was made an issue in the state and his friends attribute his defeat to this.

HARDING SILENT

Washington, Nov. 8.—President Harding will make no post-election statement, it was said at the white house, because he believed the opinions registered in the ballot boxes, regardless of their nature, need no interpretation from the president.

GILLETT WINS AGAIN

New York, Nov. 8.—Speaker Gillett, Republican, was re-elected from the Second Massachusetts district for his sixteenth term, making him the patriarch of the new house of representatives, an honor now held by former Speaker Cannon, who was not a candidate for election to the new congress.

SPECIAL CARS TO BE PROVIDED HERE

All members of Xenia City churches, who will accompany the delegation from this city to the "Billy" Sunday meeting at Dayton, Friday night by way of the inter-urban line, will leave the traction office at five o'clock. Special cars will be provided for the crowd, and will leave the local station immediately following the regular five o'clock car.

The cars will leave Dayton, after the meeting at ten o'clock. Badges will be provided all those attending the meeting, everyone being requested to secure them from their own pastors.

APPEAL FOR AID MEETS WITH PROMPT ACTION

The plea made by Mrs. Carrie I. Robertson, executive secretary Social Service League, for a coat for a two-months old child of a widow, was seen by a local man, who went to a local store, Wednesday and purchased a pretty white corduroy coat for the little child, and presented it to the League. The organization has been successful in each case where pleas have been made through the newspapers for needy families generous hearted citizens responding.

BONUS IS FAVORED

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Down state precincts reporting on the soldiers' bonus referendum gave nearly three to one in favor of the $55,000,000 bond issue. The same precincts gave two to one for the beer and light wines referendum.

SUCCESSOR TO DAY

Washington, Nov. 8.—A successor to Associate Justice Day of the supreme court, whose resignation becomes effective on Nov. 14, will be nominated by President Harding as soon as congress reassembles, it was said at the white house. Officials added, however, that it had not yet been determined whether the nominee will be a Democrat or a Republican, or from the north or the south.

HULL IS ELECTED

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 8.—Cordell Hull, chairman of the Democratic national committee, was elected to the house from the Fourth district over Representative Clouse, the Republican incumbent. Mr. Hull represented the same district when defeated two years ago.

cinets showing for beer, 414,265; against 445,286.

In the three Cleveland congressional districts Congressman Norton and Gahn had been defeated by former Congressmen Mooney and Crocker, Democrats, while the veteran Theodore Burton, was returned in the 22nd district by an overwhelming vote.

Votes on other state officers were slow in reporting, the following being the totals at 10 o'clock:

Lieut. Governor—3,700 precincts, Chaffield, (R) 324,250; Bloom, (D) 325,051.

Secretary of State—3,690 precincts, Brown (R) 342,267; Fulton (D), 312,685.

Treasurer of State—3,696 precincts, Day (R) 344,000; Hiller (D), 304,561.

Attorney General — 3,700 precincts, Crabbe (R) 341,243; Young, (D) 330,773.

Supreme Court Judges—2,912 precincts, Hough 204,200; Day, 181,644; Allen 146,274; Matthews, 133,830; Price, 110,006.

GREENFIELD TEAM TO PROVIDE GRID BATTLE FRIDAY

The coming of McClain High football team of Greenfield here Friday to do battle on the Fairgrounds gridiron with Coach Earl Burgner's Central High eleven, marks one of the high spots in the 1922 grid campaign of the locals.

A powerful eleven, always to be feared and respected, is the calibre of the eleven that Coach Hays brings to Xenia annually from Greenfield. A defeat by Greenfield would shatter the dreams of local fans for a successful season more than dropping a game to any other team on the schedule. A victory would fill the cup of happiness of fans here to overflowing as it would avenge the defeat handed Xenia's crack basketball quintet on the McClain floor last winter.

Something like the fighting spirit that comes along mid-season and re-awakened and rejuvenated a football eleven to out do itself for the balance of the season is pervading the squad of huskies that composes the "big blue" machine. The scoreless tie slipped Captain Don Currie and his mates by London last week was a bitter pill to the blue and white athletes. The fact that the locals had anticipated a win by a comfortable margin made the surprise score hurt that much worse. As it is, the athletes are on their toes to redeem themselves on their first appearance before the home crowd for two weeks and this spirit should greet help.

McClain has been going strong this season. While Washington C. H. played a scoreless tie with London putting the Fayette county team on the same plane as Xenia, McClain High defeated Washington which indicates that the Greenfield team is stronger than Coach Burgner's proteges. Last Friday Greenfield defeated Wilmington High 19 to 7 and Wilmington has been going strong. Coach Hays has such veterans back as Armstrong at quarterback who is now captain Harps, at center and other stars. Furthermore Greenfield remembers a certain humiliating defeat handed them last year by the local gridriders and the game looks to fans as one of the most interesting on the waning schedule.

SCHOOL PUPILS VOTE AS PARENTS STRAW BALLOT SHOWS

Pupils at Central High School, in a straw vote conducted by Principal Harper C. Pender, Tuesday, voted practically the same way as did Greene County and Xenia voters at the regular election.

The students showed that they are principally Republican in politics, by giving majorities to all Republican candidates. Frank A. Jackson, Republican candidate for Treasurer, was defeated by his Democratic opponent, H. A. Higgins, by a total vote of 84 to 73 in the morning classes. The afternoon classes reversed the result, giving Jackson 107 and Higgins 79.

The Democratic students in the afternoon classes asserted themselves in behalf of Ernest Thuma, Jametown, Democratic candidate for County Commissioner, giving him a majority of 156 to 139 cast for Herman Eavey, Republican. This was the reverse of the morning vote, where Eavey received 136 and Thuma 43.

The morning class voted as follows: Thompson, 107; Donahay, 66; Chatfield, 99; Bloom, 66; Brown, 113; Fulton, 57; Day, 108; Hiller, 55; Crabbe, 110; Young, 59; Fess, 114; Pomerene, 57; Brand, 104; Zimmerman, 62; Pence, 108; Mowery, 57; Broadstone, 56; Mrs. Wilson, 73; Elam, 116; Weber, 55; Sharp, 112; Dunlap, 60; Wead, 98; Copesey, 67; Eavey, 125; Thuma, 43; Jackson, 73; Higgins, 84; Thomas, 101; Bradfute, 68; Davis, 119; Williamson, 101; Smith, 68; Babb, 76; Mrs. Faulkner, 37.

The afternoon classes voted this way: Thompson, 127; Donahay, 72; Chatfield, 119; Bloom, 77; Brown, 128; Fulton, 64; Day, 132; Hiller, 60; Crabbe, 120; Young, 67; Fess, 126; Pomerene, 70; Brand, 136; Zimmerman, 56; Pence, 128; Mowery, 63; Broadstone, 120; Mrs. Wilson, 73; Elam, 133; Weber, 59; Sharp, 141; Dunlap, 57; Wead, 132; Copesey, 62; Eavey, 139; Thuma 156; Jackson, 104; Higgins, 79; Thomas, 129; Bradfute, 65; Davis, 137; Williamson, 120; Smith, 73; Babb, 55; Mrs. Faulkner, 28.

GOING IT TOO HARD?

Overwork, worry, overeating and lack of exercise and sleep are responsible for much kidney trouble. If your back aches and the kidneys seem weak, rest up and use Doan's Kidney Pills.

Leonard Jones, car inspector, Home Ave., Xenia, gave the following statement Aug. 2, 1917: "Heavy lifting and working in a cramped position while repairing cars brought on lumbago. I was stiff and lame across the small of my back. After I had worked in a cramped position for a few minutes I could hardly straighten up. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and began to use them. They certainly proved to be the medicine I needed for I began to get better immediately and after using a few boxes was rid of this attack. Since then I have resorted to Doan's at the first symptom of lumbago and they quickly relieve it."

On Aug. 15, 1921, Mr. Jones confirmed the above statement by saying: "Doan's deserve the highest praise I can give them as they absolutely cured me of kidney trouble some years ago."

Skin Ablaze with Eczema Constant Itching Almost Unbearable!

We know there is one thing that stops eczema, and that is more red-blood-cells! S. S. S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red-blood-cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it! Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-digging torture and its soul-torturing, unbearable itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go, when the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting-plants of nature! S. S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1829! S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, blood-cleansers and body-builders known to us mortals! When you put these facts together, then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin than a disease. Mrs. Arthur N. Smith, Pearl St., Newark, Ohio, writes:

"My little girl had a very bad case of eczema. She began taking S. S. S. and a few days later the itching stopped. I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. I cannot talk too much about it, for I know it is O. K."

Here is your opportunity. S. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. S. does build red-blood-cells, it routs rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run-down. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

S.S.S. makes you feel like yourself again

ASKS DONATION FOR BABY CLINIC IN XENIA

Mrs. Margaret Kelley, Social Service League Public Health nurse, stated Wednesday that the League is in need of a small stand, measuring about a foot square, for use in the weekly baby clinics conducted at the organization, upon which the scales in which the babies are weighed will be placed.

Any one having a suitable table is asked to donate it to the League, and will be greatly appreciated in the work.

GOING IT TOO HARD?

Overwork, worry, overeating and lack of exercise and sleep are responsible for much kidney trouble. If your back aches and the kidneys seem weak, rest up and use Doan's Kidney Pills.

Leonard Jones, car inspector, Home Ave., Xenia, gave the following statement Aug. 2, 1917: "Heavy lifting and working in a cramped position while repairing cars brought on lumbago. I was stiff and lame across the small of my back. After I had worked in a cramped position for a few minutes I could hardly straighten up. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and began to use them. They certainly proved to be the medicine I needed for I began to get better immediately and after using a few boxes was rid of this attack. Since then I have resorted to Doan's at the first symptom of lumbago and they quickly relieve it."

On Aug. 15, 1921, Mr. Jones confirmed the above statement by saying: "Doan's deserve the highest praise I can give them as they absolutely cured me of kidney trouble some years ago."

Skin Ablaze with Eczema Constant Itching Almost Unbearable!

We know there is one thing that stings eczema, and that is more red-blood-cells! S. S. S. builds them by the million! You can increase your red-blood-cells to the point where it is practically impossible for eczema to exist. We know that as blood-cells increase in number, blood impurities vanish! We also know that night follows day. Both are facts! But have you, eczema sufferers, ever actually taken advantage of this wonderful fact? Thousands just like you have never thought about it! Skin eruptions, eczema with all its fiery, skin-digging torture and its soul-tearing, unrelenting itching, pimples, blackheads and boils, they all pack up and go. When the tide of blood-cells begins to roll in! Blood-cells are the fighting-plants of nature! S. S. S. builds them by the million! It has been doing it since 1820! S. S. S. is one of the greatest blood-cell builders, blood-cleansers and body-builders known to us mortals! When you put these facts together—then to continue to have eczema and skin eruptions looks more like a sin—a disease. Mrs. Arthur N. Smith, Pearl St., Newark, Ohio, writes:

"My little girl had a very bad case of eczema. She began taking S. S. S. and in well now. I thank you very much. I tell my friends what a good medicine it is. I cannot talk too much about it, for I know it is O. K."

Here is your opportunity. S. S. S. contains only vegetable medicinal ingredients. Because S. S. S. does build red-blood-cells, it cures rheumatism, builds firm flesh, fills out hollow cheeks, beautifies the complexion, builds you up when you are run-down. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size bottle is the more economical.

S.S.S. makes you feel like yourself again

Huge Crowd Witnesses Varied Election Party of Gazette and Republican

The management of The Gazette and the Republican was congratulated Wednesday on what was said by spectators to have been the best election night service ever offered by these papers.

The same compliment was silently expressed Tuesday night when hundreds of people interested in the vote, stood in the street in front of the Gazette building until midnight, watching the returns as thrown on the screen, listening to the spoken returns from the horn of the radio magnavox and being entertained in the meantime by musical selections by radio broadcast from Cincinnati, Dayton, Fort Worth, Texas, Newark, N. J. and Schenectady, N. Y. Lyon Galloway of the Galloway Electric shop was in charge of the radio and operated it successfully the entire evening.

The crowd was one of the largest election day assemblages that ever waited in front of the offices of these newspapers especially at a non-presidential year. The crowd assembled early and stayed late, and although returns early in the evening were meagre, due to the slow count, the spectators were entertained with music by radio and pictures of the candidates shown on the screen besides a few returns that were coming in from New York and other states that voted Tuesday.

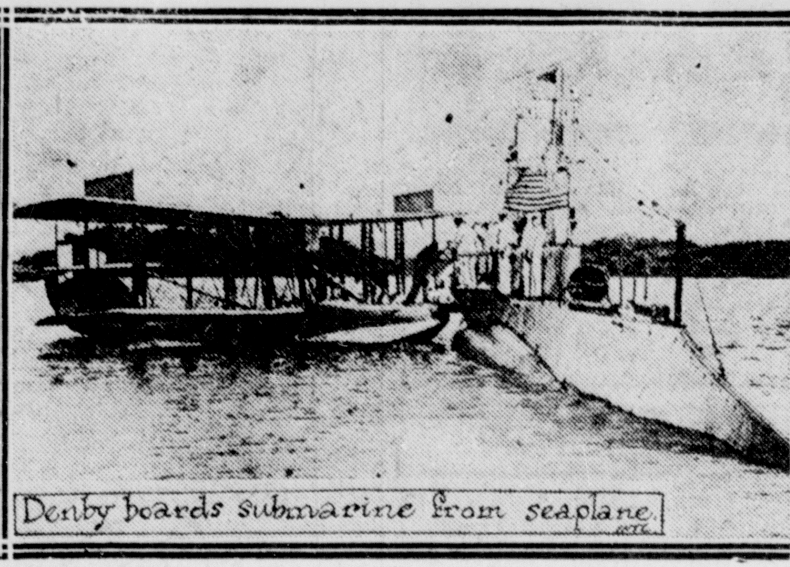

The returns gathered from Greene County were taken by telephone from the various precincts officials direct into the newspapers offices, and were also obtained at the board of election rooms, messengers carrying the returns to the newspapers. These were then printed on slides and thrown on the screen. At intervals of every half hour, the International News Service, of which The Gazette and the Republican are subscribers, called the office from Columbus where state and national returns were being received, and provided the newspapers with the latest returns available. These were also thrown on the screen.

In the meantime, the musical radio program was interrupted every time necessary in order to broadcast returns of the election obtained there, and the loud-speaker informed all within hearing distance of first-hand information. The service was the most complete ever offered by these papers, and gave spectators quicker and more accurate returns than anytime in the past.

Only one, or perhaps two things, marred the program. Early in the evening a fuse blew out in the newspaper plant, and practically all of the lights were cast in darkness. The light used to run the stereopticon machine which threw the returns on the screen, suffered from the blown out fuse, and during the time taken to fix it, several people called the newspapers to ask if the program had been discontinued. Later another fuse burned out, but the difficulty was more quickly remedied.

WAS A 'BEAR CAT'

"My wife was never an angel, but after five years of liver and stomach trouble she became a 'bear cat.' No doctor or medicine helped her and we thought there was no help for her. Our grocer told me of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which had helped him for same trouble, so I brought home a bottle, but she promptly threw it out. I got it back and after a week coaxed her into taking it. She is now enjoying the best of health and disposition." It is a simple, harmless preparation that moves the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sayre & Hemphill and druggists everywhere.

HERE AND THERE WITH THE VOTERS

Boston, Nov. 8.—With figures from 13 Boston and Worcester election precincts missing, it was apparent today that Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Republican, had been returned to office by an exceedingly narrow margin. Lodge's lead was scarcely over 3,500 and it was expected complete returns would reduce this.

Minneapolis, Nov. 8.—Senator Frank B. Kellogg, Republican, and Congressman A. J. Volstead, Republican, and dry law author, on the basis of early morning figures have been defeated in what promises to be one of the biggest political overturns in Minnesota in the last decade.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 8.—Republican leaders claimed the re-election of Miles Poindexter to the U. S. Senate over C. C. Dill, Democrat, by a margin of 4,000 votes today in the closest election in the state's history.

Philadelphia, Nov. 8.—Gifford Pinchot is today governor-elect of Pennsylvania by a majority of more than 213,000 votes throughout the state. The Republican victory however is slightly marred by Democratic inroads in several counties which hitherto have been unquestioned Republican strongholds. In eight of the 26 congressional districts in the state, Democratic candidates have won, according to available returns.

San Francisco, Nov. 8.—Re-elected by the greatest majority ever accorded him in his long political career, Senator Hiram Johnson led the entire Republican ticket in California to an overwhelming victory.

Springfield, Nov. 8.—Clark county complete unofficial, gives the following, total precincts in county, 127; Governor: Thompson 11,477; Donahue 11,498; U. S. Senator: Fess 11,386; Pomeroy 11,222; Beer amendment, for beer 9,321; against 12,859; Lieut. Governor, Chatfield (R) 10,200; Earl D. Bloom, 11,122; Secretary of State Thad Brown (R) 11,893; W. H. Fulton 9,944; State Treasurer, H. Day (R) 12,567; W. J. Hiler (D) 9,783; Attorney General, Crabbe (R) 12,272; S. M. Young (D) 10,316; Supreme Court, Allen, Ind. 4,264.

Mrs. H. E. Javey has been confined to her bed for the last week by illness. Her condition is now improving.

Mrs. W. H. Rowe, of New York City, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. G. F. Greenleaf, of North King St. Mr. Rowe, who stopped off in Columbus for a few days joined Mrs. Rowe in this city Wednesday. They will spend two weeks here.

Mrs. Jesse E. Smith and three children, who have spent the last few months visiting with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Owens of West Third Street, will leave next week for their home at McGill, Nevada.

Mrs. William S. Connor, and daughter, Jean, and Mrs. Joseph Bohner, of Dayton, spent Wednesday in this city visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Owens on West Third Street.

Mrs. Jennie Easton, of this city has returned to her home on Home avenue, after three weeks spent with friends and relatives in and around Milford, Ohio.

Mrs. Harry Fundge and Mrs. Emma Eley, received the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Lutheran Church, at the church parlors for the regular meeting of the society, Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Blumlein and son George, and daughter Vivian, and Mrs. William Gardner, of Covington, Ky., were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Filson, of North Detroit street.

YELLOW SPRINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hutslar entertained thirty of their friends at a Halloween party at their home in Yellow Springs, Monday evening.

The guests attended the affair in masked costume and enjoyed the evening with games, contests and a fortune teller suggestive of the season.

Halloween colors were carried out in orange and black, lighted pumpkin faces decorating the rooms. At a late hour a cafeteria luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Raper Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hughes, Mr. Charles Payne, Mrs. Bernard Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Saito, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Strans, Mrs. Gallagher, Mrs. Dinison, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Folch, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curry from Springfield.

EAST END NEWS

St. John A. M. E. Choir will practice at the church at 7:00 this evening.

Mrs. Margaret Kelley, Social Service League public health nurse, addressed the members of the Twentieth Century Club, at their regular meeting held Tuesday night. Mrs. Kelley explained the work of the League, and urged the co-operation of the people in furthering the work of the organization.

Huge Crowd Witnesses Varied Election Party of Gazette and Republican

The management of The Gazette and The Republican was congratulated Wednesday on what was said by spectators to have been the best election night service ever offered by these papers.

The same compliment was silently expressed Tuesday night when hundreds of people interested in the vote, stood in the street in front of the Gazette building until midnight, watching the returns as thrown on the screen, listening to the spoken returns from the horn of the radio magnavox and being entertained in the meantime by musical selections by radio broadcast from Cincinnati, Dayton, Fort Worth, Texas, Newark, N. J. and Schenectady, N. Y. Lyon Galloway of the Galloway Electric shop was in charge of the radio and operated it successfully the entire evening.

The crowd was one of the largest election day assemblages that ever waited in front of the offices of these newspapers especially at a non-presidential year. The crowd assembled early and stayed late, and although returns early in the evening were meagre, due to the slow count, the spectators were entertained with music by radio and pictures of the candidates thrown on the screen besides a few returns that were coming in from New York and other states that voted Tuesday.

The returns taken from Greene County were gathered by telephone from the various precincts officials direct into the newspapers offices, and were also obtained at the board of election rooms, messengers carrying the returns to the newspapers. These were then printed on slides and thrown on the screen. At intervals of every half hour, of which The Gazette and The Republican are subscribers, called the office from Columbus where state and national returns were being received, and provided the newspapers with the latest returns available. These were also thrown on the screen.

In the meantime, the musical radio program was interrupted every time necessary in order to broadcast returns of the election obtained there, and the loud-speaker informed all within hearing distance of first-hand

TWO VOTES WIN SCHOOL PROPOSAL IN JEFFERSON TWP.

Voters of Jefferson Township Tuesday, gave the small majority of two votes to the proposed three mill levy for school purposes, and the issue carried.

The purpose of the levy is to provide operating expenses for the centralized school in that township. Sentiment was divided on the proposal, and the outcome of the proposed levy was not determined until every vote had been counted and the small majority made evident.

TEAM TO PRACTICE LATE WEDNESDAY

Members of the American Legion football team will practice Wednesday evening and every other evening this week, under the direction of that veteran football mentor, Coach Geo. Baldner.

This was the announcement Wednesday of Manager Roy Bayliff, who wants to see his charges in the pink for the renewal of their football relations next Sunday with the M. W. A. Club of Trotwood. The team must also prepare for the harder game on the Sunday following with the Osborn Indians.

LESS MEAT IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

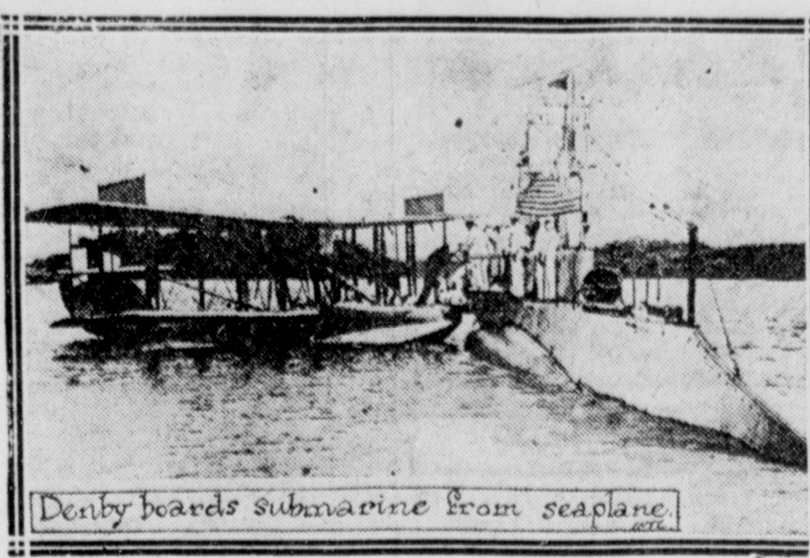

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles you.

No man or woman who eats too much meat can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Big meat eating may develop uric acid, which excites the kidneys; they become over-worked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood; then we get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus often ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications.

WAS A 'BEAR CAT'

"My wife was never an angel, but after five years of liver and stomach trouble she became a 'bear cat.' No doctor or medicine helped her and we thought there was no help for her. Our grocer told me of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which had helped him for same trouble, so I brought home a bottle, but she promptly threw it out. I got it back and after a week coaxed her into taking it. She is now enjoying the best of health and disposition." It is a simple, harmless preparation that moves the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. FOOLING THE FARMERS ABOUT ROAD BUILDING.

The following was issued by the Ohio Department of Highways and Public Works just before the late election:

"Mr. Donahey, candidate for Governor, makes the statement that if elected Governor, he will build roads for five, six and seven thousand dollars a mile."

Let it be borne in mind that Mr. Donahey nor any other person is able to substantiate a claim that they will build roads for this sum of money. Construction within this limit of expenditure would result in a mere surfacing without proper drainage and without the proper bridge structures.

During 1921, this Department maintained every inch of road under its jurisdiction and found it necessary to borrow two million dollars of construction money in order to carry out a completed program of maintenance.

One year of expenditure of the public funds for road building on the basis of Mr. Donahey's statement would bankrupt the State of Ohio for MAINTENANCE and all the money expended would prove a total loss by reason of its not being maintained. And after one year's construction of that kind, all the money that the State of Ohio could raise would make but a small showing in MAINTAINING the system.

Mr. Donahey in his statement exhibits gross ignorance of the road needs of the State and demonstrates beyond the question of a doubt his unfitness to dictate the policy of the road department for a progressive State such as Ohio.

GROWING POPULARITY OF FOOTBALL.

As to the benefit a boy derives from football it is unquestionably great. To play football a boy must be quick-witted, resourceful and brave. He must possess great stamina and keep himself in perfect physical condition. If he does not possess these qualities he will quickly acquire them or he will be unable to "make the team."

To develop these qualities is certainly beneficial to boys. It makes them better men, mentally, morally and physically. In the building of real men we know of no sport that will accomplish more than football.

Ignorance of the present day game is largely responsible of opposition to it. Many parents recall the football in all the terrors and roughness of their school and college days. Kicking, slugging, even biting and deliberate attempts to maim or injure the opposing players was the rule rather than the exception. All these rough tactics are barred now, and serious injury is rare indeed.

The growing popularity of football is prevalent all over the country, and no student of the game can deny that it is beneficial to the boys who play.

No sport ever grows popular and maintains that popularity unless it is clean and beneficial alike to players and spectators. Football as it is played today is all of that. Much of the roughness and danger of the old mass play attack has been eliminated, and serious injury seldom occurs—probably no more frequently than in baseball.

THE OLD ORDER CHANGETH.

Speaking of his predecessor, Lloyd George, Premier Bonar Law says:

"I will never forget, and will always be ready to assert, that in the greatest crisis of our history he did service for which the nation can never be too grateful. But that gratitude does not mean that he has the right to be prime minister for the rest of his natural life."

That is well spoken. It would have been unfortunate if every shift of governmental responsibility in the various belligerent countries since the armistice had been accompanied by so fair a measure of courteous credit to the "outs" on the part of their successors. It would be similarly fortunate if all the "outs," recent, present or prospective could accept the philosophic conclusion of Bonar Law's statement.

It is one of the weaknesses of human nature and one of the handicaps of political progress that men in office come to look upon their exercise of power as a vested right and upon themselves as the sole and permanent guardians of their country's destiny. All rulers, and particularly those chosen by democratic processes, must learn newly what King Arthur learned a thousand years ago—that "the old order changes," and must change, to permit the growth of a living human society.

BE PATIENT WITH THE DETOURS.

"Motorists who complain about detours will be happy," writes an automobile man, "when they discover that the whole United States has become a network of fine roadways over which will pass an endless line of motor cars, buses and trucks carrying more freight and passengers than have ever been carried before."

It is a curious thing that the first emotion aroused in the breast of an automobilist by the sight of road work is nearly always that of annoyance. The hurrying driver is impatient if he merely has to pick his way carefully through piles of material or along the side of a stretch of half-finished paving. When he has to turn out of his course, he regards it as an outrage. The "detour" signs become red rags to the tourist. The local resident who really ought to realize what it is all about may be still more resentful.

But every detour means an improvement. It is a sign of constructive work, of progress toward highway perfection. Properly viewed, every such sign would be welcomed as a blessing. A sad prospect there would be for travel in this country if those signs vanished from the highway!

THE NEW PREMIER'S POLITICAL HONEYMOON—

1902--Twenty Years Ago--1922

The Ohio Methodist Home for the aged at Yellow Springs was burned to the ground yesterday morning, the fire being caused by an overheated furnace pipe. Fortunately, all of the aged inmates of the home were able to escape.

Last Saturday the Xenia High School football team came home from Springfield where they played the High School team of that city, with a score of 23 to 0 in favor of Xenia.

Mr. Marcus Shoup left last night for Monroe, La., where he will enjoy an outing and spend some time hunting.

The first day of the quail law finds the Xenia hunters scattered through the woods and fields in all directions and the crack of the guns can be heard from all sides.

WEEKLY HAND TREATMENTS

The busiest woman is sure to be the one who needs hand treatments the most. The housewife can manage a little time each day to repair the ravages of cooking and cleaning. But the business woman is rarely mistress of her hours, that is, she will be so tired at night that she will want to rest or enjoy herself, rather than spend her precious leisure beautifying herself.

For such women I would suggest a weekly hand treatment that will not take a great deal of time. This is to wear what are called cosmetic gloves every Saturday night, since Sunday morning she will have more time to continue the treatment. She can purchase any number of bleaching pastes which come for this purpose but plain soap and water and as soon as convenient afterwards give the nails a thorough manicure. Such a treatment once a week will always keep the hands pretty.

Curly—A girl of 15, 5 ft., 4 in., is normal weight at 110 to 115 pounds.

If your hair becomes too oily before shampoo time dust some powder through it and allow it to remain on only long enough to absorb the excess oil. Shake all of this out of the hair, as any that remains will cause it to dry and become eventually brittle.

Oxfords and woolen hose make a comfortable combination as they afford protection and freedom for exercising.

Turkey—Hair-1p is a case for expert surgery. No formula will avail. Tomorrow—A Perfumed Breath.

EIGHTY BODIES ARE FOUND IN MINE

Spangler, Pa., Nov. 8.—With the exception of the funeral of the victims, most of which will be held today, and the coroner's inquest and official investigation to come, the tragedy of the Reilly Coal mine on the outskirts of this town has come to a close. Eighty bodies have been found, 75 identified and 32 survivors are in the Spangler hospital. The International News Service correspondent was advised today that the mine has been thoroughly explored and there are no more bodies below. Rescuers have accounted for 112 men which allies with the number of brass work checks issued on the morning of the disaster. Those in the hospital are reported doing well and no more deaths are likely.

CANDOR.

James Towhead went to Dingbat's store, where he had purchased goods, salt codfish, varnish for the floor, and purple riding hoods, and saws to hew and drills to bore, and shredded breakfast foods. James said, "The first will soon be here, when I should pay my bill, but I can't do that same. I fear, I'm broke. already, still; I have an abscess in my ear, my wife is lying ill. Misfortune hit me unawares and made my spirit groan; the way my gouty father swears would rend a heart of stone, my aunt fell down the cellar stairs and broke her collarbone. The surgeon, always at my gate, has made my bundle thin; the druggist brings his precious freight, and bones me for the tin, and so your bill will have to wait until my ship comes in." The merchant cried, "Oh, James, my son, your candor cheers my soul, and you may buy goods by the ton while you are in the hole, and you'll receive no bill or dun until you have your roll. All merchant princes like to aid the man who doesn't sneak, who, finding pay must be delayed, the candid truth will speak; we'll wait till your misfortunes fade, be it a year or week. Your credit's good, so help me Pete, your hard luck naught avails; so buy this pot of pickled feet, or take this keg of nails, and here's a bale of shredded wheat, a can of kippered whales."

Today's Talk

Youth takes Aspiration as a single seed, plants it, and then points with a smile to its rising beauty, its long stem, and its flowering buds.

But Age, in its better understanding, places added foliage on this proud standing stem, blows against the wilting petals that have blessed the days of spring and summer, and then distributes to the far ends of the earth the ripened seeds within the heart of the flower.

So that in distant springs and summers Youth may rise again!

Hope is like that. From generation to generation it softly treads, does its work and then passes on in its circular path to bless over and over again. No wonder that you so often hear the line: "Hope lost all is lost," for it is literally true.

Only so far, however, as you believe that Hope has left you is Hope lost. For Hope never dies. Its home is among the stars. It is the Mother of Immortality.

The spiritual adventures of the heart brush aside all the faded faith therein and give to love and romance new worlds in which to dream endless conquests in the realms of living happiness.

Hope is a quickener—more potent than any drug.

Perhaps you have seen the reproduction of the beautiful painting by Watts entitled "Hope". The lovely figure of the girl is nearly nude, her eyes are bound—and yet she clings to the world! She has lost all but this one thing—Hope.

No wonder that as we grow in years, Hope seems to warm us and to guide us on.

With my mind's eye, I see the picture of a little party of intrepid men, sitting in a faintly constructed snow mound in the far Southern ice fields. It is Scott and his party—lost starving, freezing.

Scott, the brave leader, writes. He dips his pen in the blood of Hope—and writes from the last living drop that course, through his heart. And then he and his party fall asleep—immortal as examples of courage fed by Hope.

I can understand the significance of placing Hope in the centre of that wonderful trinity of words—Faith, Hope and Charity—that 't might support and uphold the other two!

of that city, with a score of 23 to 0 in favor of Xenia.

Mr. Marcus Shoup left last night for Monroe, La., where he will enjoy an outing and spend some time hunting.

The first day of the quail law finds the Xenia hunters scattered through the woods and fields in all directions and the crack of the guns can be heard from all sides.

WEEKLY HAND TREATMENTS

The busiest woman is sure to be the one who needs hand treatments the most. The housewife can manage a little time each day to repair the ravages of cooking and cleaning. But the business woman is rarely mistress of her hours, that is, she will be so tired at night that she will want to rest or enjoy herself rather than spend her precious leisure beautifying herself.

For such women I would suggest a weekly hand treatment that will not take a great deal of time. This is to wear what are called cosmetic gloves every Saturday night, since Sunday morning she will have more time to continue the treatment. She can purchase any number of bleaching pastes which come for this purpose but plain soap and water and as soon as convenient afterwards give the nails a thorough manicure. Such a treatment once a week will always keep the hands pretty.

Curly—A girl of 15, 5 ft., 4 in., is normal weight at 110 to 115 pounds.

If your hair becomes too oily before shampoo time dust some powder through it and allow it to remain on only long enough to absorb the excess oil. Shake all of this out of the hair, as any that remains will cause it to dry and become eventually brittle.

Oxfords and woolen hose make a comfortable combination as they afford protection and freedom for exercising.

Turkey—Hair-rip is a case for expert surgery. No formula will avail. Tomorrow—A Perfumed Breath.

EIGHTY BODIES ARE FOUND IN MINE

Spangler, Pa., Nov. 8.—With the exception of the funeral of the victims, most of which will be held today, and the coroner's inquest and official investigation to come, the tragedy of the Reilly Coal mine on the outskirts of this town has come to a close. Eighty bodies have been found, 75 identified and 32 survivors are in the Spangler hospital. The International News Service correspondent was advised today that the mine has been thoroughly explored and there are no more bodies below. Rescuers have accounted for 112 men which allies with the number of brass work checks issued on the morning of the disaster. Those in the hospital are reported doing well and no more deaths are likely.

Your Druggist Recommends Tanlac

because it has demonstrated its true worth over a long period of years.

He has sold it to thousands of satisfied customers and has seen them regain their normal health and strength by its use.

He knows that as a stomach corrective and general tonic medicine it has no equal.

Over 30,000,000 bottles of Tanlac have been sold, which is still more conclusive evidence to him and to you of its unparalleled merit.

CANDOR.

James Towhead went to Dingbat's store, where he had purchased goods, salt codfish, varnish for the floor, and purple riding hoods, and saws to hew and drills to bore, and shredded breakfast foods. James said, "The first will soon be here, when I should pay my bill, but I can't do that same. I fear, I'm broke. already, still; I have an abscess in my ear, my wife is lying ill. Misfortune hit me unawares and made my spirit groan; the way my gouty father swears would rend a heart of stone, my aunt fell down the cellar stairs and broke her collarbone. The surgeon, always at my gate, has made my bundle thin; the druggist brings his precious freight, and bones me for the tin, and so your bill will have to wait until my ship comes in." The merchant cried, "Oh, James, my son, your candor cheers my soul, and you may buy goods by the ton while you are in the hole, and you'll receive no bill or dun until you have your roll. All merchant princes like to aid the man who doesn't sneak, who, finding pay must be delayed, the candid truth will speak; we'll wait till your misfortunes fade, be it a year or week. Your credit's good, so help me Pete, your hard luck naught avails; so buy this pot of pickled feet, or take this keg of nails, and here's a bale of shredded wheat, a can of kippered whales."

Youth takes Aspiration as a single seed, plants it, and then points with a smile to its rising beauty, its long stem, and its flowering buds.

But Age, in its better understanding, places added foliage on this proud standing stem, blows against the wilting petals that have blossomed the days of spring and summer, and then distributes to the far ends of the earth the ripened seeds within the heart of the flower.

So that in distant springs and summers Youth may rise again!

Hope is like that. From generation to generation it softly treads, does its work and then passes on in its circular path to bless over and over again. No wonder that you so often hear the line: "Hope lost all is lost," for it is literally true.

Only so far, however, as you believe that Hope has left you is Hope lost. For Hope never dies. Its home is among the stars. It is the Mother of Immortality.

The spiritual adventures of the heart brush aside all the faded facts therein and give to love and romance new worlds in which to dream endless conquests in the realms of living happiness.

Hope is a quickener—more potent than any drug.

Perhaps you have seen the reproduction of the beautiful painting by Watts entitled "Hope". The lovely figure of the girl is nearly nude, her eyes are bound—and yet she clings to the world! She has lost all but this one thing—Hope.

No wonder that as we grow in years, Hope seems to warm us and to guide us on.

With my mind's eye, I see the picture of a little party of intrepid men, sitting in a fairly constructed snow mound in the far Southern ice fields. It is Scott and his party—lost starving, freezing.

Scott, the brave leader, writes. He dips his pen in the blood of Hope—and writes from the last living drop that courses through his heart. And then he and his party fall asleep—immortal as examples of courage fed by Hope.

I can understand the significance of placing Hope in the centre of that wonderful trinity of words—Faith, Hope and Charity—that it might support and uphold the other two!

Home-made Remedy Stops Coughs Quickly

The best cough medicine you ever used. A family supply easily and quickly made. Saves about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Taste pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ADDRESSES MADE IN CONNECTION WITH RED CROSS DRIVE

The Wednesday program of the officials of the Greene County Red Cross and the chairman of the Sixth Annual Roll Call Drive, for Xenia city and township, included addresses by the Rev. William H. Tilford, County Red Cross chairman, and Douglas Custis, chairman of the drive in Greene County, at Osborn, and Fairfield, Wednesday afternoon and at Alpha, Wednesday night.

A meeting of the workers of Alpha was held a few days ago; a second meeting being requested in order to enthrone the workers and community further.

Miss Louise B. Shaffer, executive secretary of the Red Cross was present at the meeting of the Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society Wednesday afternoon, telling the members of the work of the Red Cross and Mrs. Carrie D. Geyer, addressed the members of the First Reformed Church, at the home of Mrs. M. L. Wolf, urging cooperation in the drive. Mrs. Geyer will give a short talk at the First M. E. prayer meeting at the church Wednesday evening.

The reports from the county township chairmen, received at the Red Cross headquarters in this city, are favorable to a large amount of work being accomplished in the drive, according to Chairman Tilford, whose stated that the committees are fast being organized in every township. One township worker, the Rev. Father J. S. Shawe, of Yellow Springs, has disposed of his roll call supplies in the community and has requested for further material at the County Red Cross headquarters.

Lanterns" which in addition to being very enjoyable was also profitable. Miss McCarty is now getting the girls ready for another operetta "In India," to be presented some time in January.

Rehearsals for the chorus work of the musical are held on Wednesday and Thursday after the afternoon classes of the High School are dismissed. Try-outs are being held at present for solo parts. About fifty girls are enrolled in the club, and prospects for the coming year are very favorable.

Miss McCarty has also organized a High School orchestra consisting of about eight pieces. At present the orchestra is working on practice material, but will soon begin work on accompaniment for the operetta.

Through the efforts of Mr. Siebert, of the High School Faculty, a boys' Glee Club is being organized. Try-outs for the Club were held last week. No program for the year has been announced, however, both Mr. Siebert and the members of the Club will try hard to make it a success.

HAVE YOU MADE ONE OF THE NEW ONE-PIECE APRONS?

In grandmother's time, the housekeeper's aprons were of two varieties: the blue and white checked gingham apron, and the plain white apron. In that day, the woman who appeared in an apron which departed from these time-honored styles was considered either frivolous or peculiar.

Today, however, the housewife has

SAYS RED PEPPER HEAT STOPS PAIN IN FEW MINUTES

Rheumatism, lumbago, neuritis, backache, stiff neck, sore muscles, strains, sprains, aching joints. When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and when heat penetrates right down into pain and congestion relief comes at once.

Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the sore spot is warmed through and through and the torture is gone.

a wide range of apron-styles from which to choose. She may select aprons which suit her own particular individuality or figure. If she be stout she may wear an apron which has long, straight lines and which is brought in snugly at the waist; for this style will make her size less apparent. If, on the other hand, she is too thin, she may wear an apron which is smoked at the shoulders, or which is gathered generously onto a yoke and not belted in.

But at last I have discovered an apron—and it is a very new style of apron—which is becoming to both stout and thin women. For the belt may be tightened for the stout woman, or put on loosely for the very thin woman. Also the apron may be made of narrow goods (to give the straight line effect) for the stout woman, or be made of wider goods, gathered in, for the thin woman. Here are the directions for making it:

How to Make One of the New One-Piece Aprons: For the woman of medium size, choose material which is 27 inches wide. (Of course a wider goods may be cut down to this width.) For this kind of apron does not go completely around you; it merely covers front of your dress from shoulder to hem (your head goes through a hole at the shoulder) and covers the back of you only from the shoulders to the waistline.

In other words, the apron, when stretched out flat on the floor, would look like one long, straight piece of material with a hole in it near one end. At the waistline in the back, a loose belt is attached; this belt is brought around to the front, over the apron (it is not attached to the front part of the apron) where it buttons securely. In this way, the back part of the apron is held down (for, the belt is stitched onto this back part, at the extreme edge.)

If I have not made myself clear in giving these directions, I will gladly draw a rough little sketch of the apron and send it to any reader who writes me and encloses a s. a. e. (This will not be a pattern, you understand—merely a small pencil sketch.)

The aprons I saw made in this style in the shops, were of cretonne, gingham, white linen, Indian Head, and unbleached muslin trimmed with bands of cretonne. So, you see, there is a very wide range of materials to choose from!

Chapters From A Woman's Life

BY JANE PHELPS

WALTER SYMPATHIZES WITH DOREEN CHAPTER 21

Mrs. Page accepted Jennie's apology most ungraciously. But I was so glad to keep her, that I cared little about that and talked to Jennie as kindly as I could, begging her to be patient. Walter had seen by her manner that something had gone wrong and questioned me.

"She was impudent to your mother, and I made her apologize," I told him.

"Gad! How did you do it?" I had no idea of telling him I had shed tears over the affair, so passed off the matter as lightly as possible. But when Jennie came into the room he said:

"I hear you wanted to leave us Jennie. I'm surprised I thought you liked living with us." He threw her one of his brilliant smiles.

"Oh, I do sir!" as usual perfectly amenable when he talked to her. "I—well, Sir, I don't like that dog!" I realized she had been about to say something concerning his mother and had caught herself in time.

"Did you apologize to the dog, too?" he asked laughing, and after a moment she joined him.

"No, sir! I'd rather not if you don't mind."

"You spoil her," I told Walter as she left the room. "You laugh and joke with her too often."

"Nonsense! Just as easy to make folks like you as to dislike you and a sight more pleasant."

That was Walter all over. He loved to be popular, even with a servant. Yet on occasion he would flare up at anyone who opposed him. But as he was over his tempers so quickly no one held them against him. "I get mad myself," Jennie said once to me when I told her she mustn't mind something Walter said, "and I gits over it just like Mr. Page does. He don't hold nothin' against nobody, no more do I." It amused me immensely to have her make the comparison. But she did hold anger against Mrs. Page, had disliked her from the first. Now I knew that this tilt I should have on even harder time to keep things smooth between them.

Helen Ralstrom was back in the studio. Whether she came and went in a taxi cab, or whether in the car with Walter I did not know for several days. Then I asked him to hurry home as I wanted him to take me to call upon a sick friend. I had some dainties and would need the car.

"Take a taxi," he said.

"But why, Walter. It seems so foolish."

"I am taking Helen home. Where you want to go isn't far. The taxi won't be nearly as much as one to send her home."

"So you are playing chauffeur for her?"

"Yes, what of it?"

"Oh, nothing! I was thinking of your mother's objections."

"What she doesn't know won't hurt her! And you can keep your mouth shut about my affairs," he returned disagreeably.

"I intend to—buttoned up tight," I replied lightly. "I have no wish to fight your battles for you. I have enough to do to care for my own."

"The Mater gets fussy at times, doesn't she, old girl?" his manner changed, "but her heart's all right."

"I know it is! I have seen her give evidence of it several times. She is different from my mother and, sometimes, I scarcely know how to take her."

"I don't wonder! I can't see your mother taking things in her hands the way the Mater does." We were both thinking of the day she bundled Helen Ralstrom out the house, although neither of us mentioned it. "She's a holy terror when she's on the rampage."

But as I said her heart's all right and she has always been just as she is now. I used to get furious, but it never did me any good. Mother's clever all right gets what she wants in this old world."

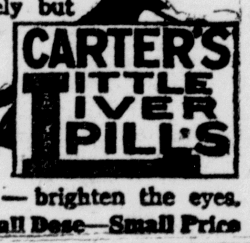

I felt like telling him he was like her in that particular, but it would only start another discussion and he was in good humor again.

Lanterns" which in addition to being very enjoyable was also profitable. Miss McCarty is now getting the girls ready for another operetta, "In India," to be presented some time in January.

Rehearsals for the chorus work of the musicale are held on Wednesday and Thursday after the afternoon classes of the High School are dismissed. Try-outs are being held at present for solo parts. About fifty girls are enrolled in the club, and prospects for the coming year are very favorable.

Miss McCarty has also organized a High School orchestra consisting of about eight pieces. At present the orchestra is working on practice material, but will soon begin work on accompaniment for the operetta. Through the efforts of Mr. Siebert, of the High School Faculty, a boys' Glee Club is being organized. Try-outs for the Club were held last week. No program for the year has been announced; however, both Mr. Siebert and the members of the Club will try hard to make it a success.

Efficient Housekeeping

HAVE YOU MADE ONE OF THE NEW ONE-PIECE APRONS?

In grandmother's time, the housekeeper's aprons were of two varieties: the blue and white checked gingham apron, and the plain white apron. In that day, the woman who appeared in an apron which departed from these time-honored styles was considered either frivolous or peculiar.

Today, however, the housewife has

SAYS RED PEPPER HEAT STOPS PAIN IN FEW MINUTES

Rheumatism, lumbago, neuritis, backache, stiff neck, sore muscles, strains, sprains, aching joints. When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and when heat penetrates right down into pain and congestion relief comes at once.

Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the sore spot is warmed through and through and the torture is gone.

Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, costs little at any drug store. Get a jar at once. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Rowles on every package.

a wide range of apron-styles from which to choose. She may select aprons which suit her own particular individuality or figure. If she be stout she may wear an apron which has long, straight lines and which is brought in snugly at the waist; for this style will make her size less apparent. If, on the other hand, she is too thin, she may wear an apron which is gathered generously onto a yoke and not belted in.

But at last I have discovered an apron—and it is a very new style of apron—which is becoming to both stout and thin women. For the belt may be tightened for the stout woman, or put on loosely for the very thin woman. Also the apron may be made of narrow goods (to give the straight line effect) for the stout woman, or be made of wider goods, gathered in for the thin woman. Here are the directions for making it:

How to Make One of the New One-Piece Aprons: For the woman of medium size, choose material which is 27 inches wide. (Of course a wider goods may be cut down to this width.) For this kind of apron does not go completely around you; it merely covers front of your dress from shoulder to hem (your head goes through a hole at the shoulder) and covers the back of you only from the shoulders to the waistline.

In other words, the apron, when stretched out flat on the floor, would look like one long, straight piece of material with a hole in it near one end. At the waistline in the back, a loose belt is attached; this belt is brought around to the front, over the apron (it is not attached to the front part of the apron) where it buttons securely. In this way, the back part of the apron is held down (for, the belt is stitched onto this back part, at the extreme edge).

If I have not made myself clear in giving these directions, I will gladly draw a rough little sketch of the apron and send it to any reader who writes me and encloses a s. a. e. (This will not be a pattern, you understand—merely a small pencil sketch.)

The aprons I saw made in this style in the shops, were of cretonne, gingham, white linen, Indian Head, and unbleached muslin trimmed with bands of cretonne. So, you see, there is a very wide range of materials to choose from!

WALTER SYMPATHIZES WITH DOREEN CHAPTER 21

Mrs. Page accepted Jennie's apology most ungraciously. But I was so glad to keep her, that I cared little about that and talked to Jennie as kindly as I could, begging her to be patient. Walter had seen by her manner that something had gone wrong and questioned me.

"She was impudent to your mother, and I made her apologize," I told him.

"Gad! How did you do it?" "I had no idea of telling him I had shed tears over the affair, so passed off the matter as lightly as possible. But when Jennie came into the room he said:

"I hear you wanted to leave us. Jennie, I'm surprised I thought you liked living with us." He threw her one of his brilliant smiles.

"Oh, I do sir!" as usual perfectly amenable when he talked to her. "I—well, Sir, I don't like that dog!" I realized she had been about to say something concerning his mother and had caught herself in time.

"Did you apologize to the dog, too?" he asked laughing, and after a moment she joined him.

"No, sir! I'd rather not if you don't mind." "You spoil her," I told Walter as she left the room. "You laugh and joke with her too often."

"Nonsense! Just as easy to make folks like you as to dislike you and a sight more pleasant."

That was Walter all over. He loved to be popular, even with a servant. Yet on occasion he would flare up at anyone who opposed him. But as he was over his tempers so quickly no one held them against him. "I get mad myself," Jennie said once to me when I told her she mustn't mind something Walter said, "and I gets over it just like Mr. Page does. He don't hold nothin' against nobody, no more do I." It amused me immensely to have her make the comparison. But she did hold on against Mrs. Page, had disliked her from the first. Now I knew that this tilt I should have on even harder time to keep things smooth between them.

Helen Ralstrom was back in the studio. Whether she came and went in a taxi cab, or whether in the car with Walter I did not know for several days. Then I asked him to hurry home as I wanted him to take me to call upon a sick friend. I had some dainties and would need the car.

"Take a taxi," he said.

"But why, Walter. It seems so foolish."

"I am taking Helen home. Where you want to go isn't far. The taxi won't be nearly as much as one to send her home."

"So you are playing chauffeur for her?"

"Yes, what of it?" "Oh, nothing! I was thinking of your mother's objections."

"What she doesn't know won't hurt her! And you can keep your mouth shut about my affairs," he returned disagreeably.

"I intend to—buttoned up tight," I replied lightly. "I have no wish to fight your battles for you. I have enough to do to care for my own."

"The Mater gets fussy at times, doesn't she, old girl?" his manner changed, "but her heart's all right."

"I know it! I have seen her give evidence of it several times. She is different from my mother and, sometimes, I scarcely know how to take her."

"I don't wonder! I can't see your mother taking things in her hands the way the Mater does." We were both thinking of the day she bundled Helen Ralstrom out the house, although neither of us mentioned it. "She's a holy terror when she's on the rampage."

But as I said her heart's all right and she has always been just as she is now. I used to get furious, but it never did me any good. Mother's clever all right gets what she wants in this old world."

I felt like telling him he was like her in that particular, but it would only start another discussion and he was in good humor again.
